

II. Bicycle Riding Equipment

A. Essential clothing and gear in order of importance:

- A.1. Helmet. The more expensive helmets have more air vents
- A.2. Padded riding shorts
- A.3. Riding gloves to protect the pressure points on your hands
- A.4. Shoes if you want to clip on to your pedals
- A.5. Water bottle + holders on the bicycle or a camelback
- A.6. Front and rear lights
- A.7. Bicycle pump
- A.8. Riding jersey. A short sleeved jersey can be converted to a winter jersey by adding a long sleeved shirt underneath it.
- A.9. Riding pants with zippers at the ankles to be worn over the shorts when the weather is cold.
- A.10. A riding jacket for cold or inclement weather
- A.11. A bicycle rack or some means to transport your bicycle
- A.12. An odometer that will tell you speed and miles ridden.
- A.13. A mirror attached to either the helmet or the bicycle
- A.14. A pouch or bag for carrying on the road essentials

B. On the Road Essentials

- B.1. Spare inner tube
- B.2. Patch kit
- B.3. Tire lever for changing flat tires
- B.4. Bicycle pump or CO2 cartridges +pump
- B.5. Multi-tool for fixing flats, and making bike adjustments or repairs
- B.6. A cell phone to call for help
- B.7. Identification / money / insurance cards